Message from the Honourable Lindsay Blackett Minister of Culture and Community Spirit

On behalf of the Ministry of Culture and Community Spirit, I would like to welcome students, children, parents and everyone who enjoys great cinema and fun activities to the 2010 Reel Fun Film Festival.

For a full week, Reel Fun will offer high-quality films from all over the world to the delight of young audiences. Just as importantly, the festival's workshops and activities will invite us into the mystery and magic of cinema, helping us appreciate how cinema affects our lives, and how it may change them for the better. This event is a shining example of how art and culture can bring joy even in life's most challenging times.

My warmest congratulations to the festival organizers and volunteers — and to all audience members — for helping the Reel Fun Film Festival live up to its name.

Lindsay Blackett
Minister of Culture and Community Spirit
